62. JOHN SON and HEIR of JOICE DE DYNEHAM.

Devon. Proof of age, 21 September, 10 Edward II.

Geoffrey Daumarle, aged 48, says that the said John was 21 on the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross last, for he was born at Notewille on 14 September, 23 Edward I, and baptized the same day in the church of St. Mary, Limeneston, by Jordan then chaplain to Sir Oliver de Dyneham; and this he knows, because he himself is patron of that church, and he has a son, William, who was born and baptized in that church, on the feast of St. George then next past.

Reginald de Clyfford, knight, aged 60, says the like, and knows it because it was told him the following day, and he went and saw the said John and gave him a gold ring.

Roger de Cokyngton, knight, aged 58, agrees, and knows it because he was a neighbour and had a daughter, Lucy, then born, and baptized in the same church on the morrow of the birth of the said John.

Gervase de Ralegh, knight, aged 60, agrees, and knows it because on that day he was at Notewille to ask Sir Oliver de Dyneham to be present at his nuptials with his wife Joan, and he saw Henry Daumfroun, godfather of the said John, carrying him from his baptism.

John de Vautort, knight, aged 70, agrees, and knows it because on the second day after the said John's birth he saw him in the lap of Isabel de Fyshacre, and then at the request of Sir Oliver he delivered to John de Vautort the younger his land of Clyst Gyrard by indenture bearing the date of the 23rd year.

* So given in the Calendar printed in 1806, but now torn away.

Nicholas de Kyrkham, knight, aged 65, agrees, and knows it because on 24 September, 23 [Edward I] he had a son, Nicholas, born, and the same day was asked by letter (litteratorie) by Sir Oliver to be present at the churching feast (?) (relevaciones) of the said John's mother.

Elias de Churchulle, aged 45, agrees, and knows it because Oliver de Dyneham gave, on the day of the said John's birth, the wardship and marriage of Bartholomew, son and heir of Oliver de Bykelegh, to Alice the wife of the said Oliver [de Bykelegh], whom he [himself] afterwards married, by writing of that date.

William Dauney(?), aged 55, agrees, and knows it because he is a neighbour of the said church and saw Emma Fychet carrying the said John from his baptism and went with her to Notewille; and a fortnight after his father John Dauney(?) died.

Richard de Lenne, aged 48, agrees, and knows it because he is a parishioner of the said church, was present at the baptism, and Jordan the chaplain dined with him the same day.

John de Kylryngton, aged 58, agrees, and knows it because he was then servant to Roger de Novaunt, who married the sister of Margaret mother of the said John, and on news of the said birth the said Roger and his wife sent him with a present to the said Margaret.

Richard de Chuderlegh, aged 42, agrees, and knows it because at the feast of St. Michael following he took Thomasia, daughter of Elias de Godelegh, to wife, who still survives, and espoused her in the same church, and then he was told of the said John's birth and baptism.

Walter Gamboun, aged 53, agrees, and knows it because he had a daughter, Alice, who was with John de Poudherham, and he often went to see her at Poudherham near Notewille, where he heard of the said John's birth, and went and saw him carried from his baptism.

Ralph le Clerk, asserting himself . . . with William de Bereford one of the executors of [the late earl of Cornwall] was present and said he knew nothing why the king ought not to render to the said John his lands &c. as of full age.

Letter [from the escheator]. He sends all the inquisitions, excepting those for Ixnyng and Newmarket in Suffolk [and Cambridge], and Fordham in Essex. which on account of certain difficulties remain yet to be taken.

Writ of certiorari commanding the escheator, having viewed certain charters in the custody of the prior of Wilmundele and Giles Dargentem, to enquire concerning the manors of Ixnyng, Newmarket and Fordham, 2 January, 12 Edward II.

Return [from the escheator] that he went to the manors in this writ contained, and inspected two charters exhibited by the prior of Wilmondele and Giles Dargentem containing that Reginald Dargentem gave to his son John and Joan his wife and the heirs of their bodies, all his lands &c. in Ixnyng and Newmarket, excepting a service of 30 horse-shoes, and all his lands &c. in Fordham, excepting the service of a certain tenant, doing the services due to the chief lords. Having read these before men of the neighbourhood, they said that they were ignorant of those charters and that the said John and Joan entered by the enfeofment of the said Reginald but by other charters, and that the manor of Ixnyng is not held of the king but of another lord; but the said prior and Giles asserted that they had found no other charters. Whereupon, as it is contained in the book of fees in the king's exchequer amongst knights who hold of the king in chief, that Richard Dargentem holds 40s. land in Ixnynge, it appears to him that the manor is held of the king in chief, and as the heir is yet of tender age and incapable of prosecuting his right, he has refrained from acting upon that inquisition and holds the said manors in the king's hand.

Writ [of certiorari] to the escheator, reciting the above writ and return &c., and commanding him again to enquire concerning the lands in Ixnynge, Fordham and Newmarket, 20 May, 12 Edward II. Endorsed with return from the escheator, that he sends an inquisition concerning the lands in Fordham, but has made none concerning Ixnynge and Newmarket on account of other business.

The said John begat of the said Joan three daughters, viz.—Joan aged 9, Elizabeth aged 7, and Denise aged 4, who are heirs of the said Joan, and after her death the said John espoused one Agnes, of whom he begat John his son, aged a year and more, who is his next heir.

Writ of plenius certiorari to the escheator to enquire in the presence of Saer son and heir of Ralph de Rocheford, whether the said Theobald died seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor of 'la Grove' or held it for life, &c., 16 November, 14 Edward II.

WARWICK. Inq. taken at Rokeby on Monday after St. Gregory the Pope 14 Edward II.

La Grave. Ralph, father of Sayer de Rocheford, whose heir he is, held two parts of the said manor of Theobald son of Peter de Nevill by service of 20 marks yearly, and gave them to Philip de Gayton and Scholastica his wife and to the heirs of the said Philip, so that after the death of the said Scholastica the said Philip died seised of the said two parts, together with the third part, by fine levied in the king's court, 13 Edward I. between them and Theobald de Nevill, granting the same to the said Philip and Scholastica, and the heirs of the said Philip, and also the reversion of the third part of the manor which Scholastica late the wife of William de Curly held in dower. So after the death of the said Philip and Scholastica the said Theobald de Gayton entered upon the manor as their son and heir and died seised thereof. Neither the said Philip nor Scholastica ever altered their estate in any part thereof.

Writ to the escheator to enquire what lands, &c. Juliana, late the wife of Thomas Murdak, held on the day she committed felony, for which she was burned as is said, 20 May, 14 Edward II.

NORTHAMPTON. Inq. Saturday before St. Luke, 15 Edward II.

Gayton. The said Juliana, sister and one of the heirs of Theobald de Gayton, held a third part of the manor as follows, viz.—The said Theobald held the manor, with other lands, &c. of Sir John de Fenes by service of a knight's fee, and after his death, the said manor, with other lands, descended to the said Thomas Murdak and Juliana his wife and to Scholastica de Melsa, as sisters and heirs of the said Theobald, and they were seised thereof until the said lands were taken by the escheator into the king's hand because the said Theobald held the manor of Shrauele of the king in chief by grand serjeanty. But before the said Thomas, Juliana and Scholastica could fully prosecute their right thereto, the said Thomas was slain and Juliana his wife indicted of his death. The said Scholastica prosecuted her right and did fealty to the king for her moiety of the lands, &c. of the said Theobald, and the king committed the other moiety to the custody of John Hakelut his yeoman (valetto). But afterwards Margery, late the wife of the said Theobald, recovered a third part of all his lands, &c. as her dower; and thus a third part of the said manor, with a third part of other lands, &c., is still in the king's hand and in the custody of the said John, and not otherwise.

Writ of scire facias to warn the said Sayer and Elizabeth his wife to be in the chancery on the morrow of St. Martin next to shew cause why the manor of 'la Grave' should not be resumed into the king's hand, Juliana one of the sisters and heirs of the said Theobald de Gayton having suffered capital punishment for felony, 16 October, 15 Edward II. Endorsed that a day was given (by adjournment) until the quinzaine of Easter following.

Writ of dedimus potestatem for receiving the attorneys for the said Sayer and Elizabeth, 23 October, 15 Edward II.

Petition to the king and council, from Scholastica (Escolate) de Meaus, sister and one of the heirs of the said Theobald de Gayton, showing that Sayer de Rocheford had sued out a diem clausit extremum and it was found by an ill informed inquisition that the said Theobald only held the manor of 'la Grove' for life, with reversion to the said Sayer and his heirs; but afterwards came the said Scholastica and showed charters, &c. testifying that the said Theobald held the fee simple, and by an inquisition it was so found, whereupon she sued a writ to warn (a faire garnir) the said Sayer and Elizabeth, &c. which writ was returned into the chancery on the octave of St. Martin, but has never been executed, but delayed from day to day. Wherefore she prays for the manor to be taken into the king's hand without delay. (French, undated.) Endorsed. Let justice be done in the chancery, and meanwhile let the manor remain in the king's hand.

Writ of certiorari to the escheator to enquire of whom the manor of 'la Grave' is held, and how, &c., and whether Ida de Clynton entered upon it as her escheat by reason of the felony of the abovesaid Juliana, as she says, and when, and how; and also if Theobald de Gayton held it in fee tail, as Scholastica late the wife of Godfrey de Melsa, and John Murdak, say, and whether the said Scholastica and John are his next heirs, or not, &c. 1 March, 15 Edward II.

WARWICK. Inq. 14 April, 15 Edward II.

La Grave. The said manor is held of Ida de Clynton by service of $\frac{1}{2}$ knight's fee, and she entered the manor claiming escheat after the feast of the Purification last, by reason of the felony of Juliana late the wife of Thomas Murdak, and was seised thereof for fifteen days, before it was taken into the king's hand, [on account of the rebellion of Sayer de Rocheford]. The said Juliana never had any seisin there, and the manor was in the hands of the said Sayer through disseisin when the said Ida entered. Theobald de Gayton held the manor in fee tail, as Scholastica late the wife of Godfrey de Melsa and John Murdak say, of the enfeofment Theobald de Nevill, and they are his next heirs, and were seised of the manor for six days after his death, until disseised by the said Sayer, who never had any other estate there; nor was he seised of the manor at the time when it was taken into the king's hand, but the said Ida was.

Writ to the escheator to take the proof of age of the said Ralph, whose lands &c. are in the wardship of Richard de Grey by the king's commission, 14 December, 15 Edward II.

SUFFOLK. Proof of age, 29 March, 15 Edward II.

Martin Love, aged 60, says the said Ralph was 21 and more on the feast of St. Rufus (Ruffi) the Martyr last, for he was born on that feast 28 Edward I., at Huntingfeld, in Suffolk, and baptized on the second day following in the church there, which he knows because on that feast he was present at a banquet with Sir Roger de Huntingfeld, then lord of that manor, and a damsel announced that Lady Joan Basset had born a son, who on the second day after was baptized and called Ralph.

Hamo de Huntingfeld, aged 42, says the like, and knows it because he was bound by a bond to the said Sir Roger in 20 marks, and has letters of acquittance of the 28th year [of Edward I].

John Humfrey, aged 43, says the like, and knows it because he was in the church when the said Ralph was baptized.

Henry de Ponte, aged 50, says the like, and knows it because he was bailiff in eyre in co. Suffolk in that year, and on the same day of St. Rufus came to Huntingfeld with the king's writ at the suit of Sir Reginald de Argenteym directed to (super) the said Sir Roger.

Roger de la More, aged 45, says the like, and knows it because Ralph de Bradenham, chaplain, to whom Joan mother of the said Ralph used to confess in trouble (in vexando), told him she had borne the same Ralph.

Godwin de Huntingfeld, aged 47, says the like, and knows it because he was clerk of the said Sir Roger at that time and spent his money, and the said Ralph was born in the manor of Huntingfeld, as appears by the account of his rolls, and also he was present in the church when he was baptized.

Alexander son of John, aged 50, says the like, and knows it because he came to Huntingfeld on that feast, with Joan his sister, who remained as nurse of the said Ralph.

William le Meysterneuc (?), aged 41 and more, says the like, and knows it because Sarra his mother lifted the said Ralph from the sacred font, and he was present with her.

Ralph Godwyne, aged 50, says the like, and knows it because he was present at the baptism and held the book before the chaplain together with the salt.

John Muriel, aged 55, says the like, and knows it because on the said feast he came with one William Heylock to Huntingfeld, who was clerk of the said Sir Roger, and immediately after their arrival they were told that the said Roger was born.

336. JOHN, SON AND HEIR OF JOHN DE GREY of Rutherefeld.

OXFORD. Proof of age taken at Rutherefeld by Henle on Monday the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle, 15 Edward II.

Thomas de Gardinis, knight, aged 60, says that the same heir was 21 on the morrow of SS. Simon and Jude last, for he was born at Rutherefeld on that day 28 Edward I., and on the third day after baptized in the church there; and this he knows because he was present at the banquet when Margaret mother of the said heir purified herself from her childbirth, and also because John son of John Giffard of Twyford, his kinsman and next heir, was born in the same year, the one being his heir and the other the heir of his partner.

William de Warmoteston, aged 60, says the like, and knows it because he, with John de Sakevill and Joan de Grey, lifted the said heir from the sacred font.

Richard de Thours, the younger, aged 40 and more, says the like, and knows it because he has a daughter, Roisia, who was born at the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist in the said year 28, who likewise is 21 and more, and whom he has always called of the same age with the heir.

Henry de Ardern, aged 40 and more, says the like, and knows it because at that time he was a merchant having 100*l.* of money, and for celebrating the feast at the time of the said purification, the servants of John de Grey received from him 6*l.* for buying cloths, and with the residue of the said money he traded (mercatisavit) and crossed the sea, and in that year in foreign parts he was one of ten English merchants who were attached and lost 1,000*l.*, on account of which the king granted them an arrest upon the Flemings (super Flandrens).

Robert de Shippelake, aged 60 and more, says the like, and knows it because he has a daughter, Joan, whom John de Mereworth married, who was born on Christmas day in the said 28th year, whom he always called of the same age.

Roger de Evelme, aged 40 and more, says the like, and knows it because at that time and for long after he was purveyor (creditor et provisor) in Henle for buying victuals for the said heir's father.

John Bakon, aged 40, Thurstan de Evelme, aged 50, Robert de Sancta Fide, aged 50, John de Harewell, aged 40 and more, Gilbert

Dru, aged 60, and Robert de Padenhale, aged 40 and more, agree, and know it because of the great feast which John de Grey made at Ruthrefeld on the day of St. Andrew next after the said heir's birth, when the said Margaret purified herself from the said heir; which feast is still notorious in those parts, because the abbots, priors and almost all the other good men (probi homines) of those parts were present.

The bishop of St. David's, who had the wardship of certain lands of the said inheritance in Suththrop, co. Gloucester, William de Ayremynne, who had the wardship of certain lands &c. in Duston, co. Northampton, and Henry le Scroup and Robert de Morby, being warned came not nor sent anyone for them.

C. Edw. II. File 72. (3.)

Thomas Parrok, 60, agrees, except that he knows it because at that time John de Queccheworth gave him and his heirs 16a. land at Queccheworth.

John de Hothlegh, 60, agrees, and knows it because at that time he was bailiff of the hundred of Hertefeld, and knows the said John's age by the date of the estreat of the hundred.

William Daly, 50, agrees, excepting that at that time Ralph Daly his father died, and he entered his tenement as his son and heir.

Richard Coleman, 60, agrees, and says that at that time he made a pilgrimage to Santiago beyond the sea, and the church of St. Mary, Hertefeld.

John de Bollakeston, 36, (agrees), and knows it because at that time Gilbert de Bollakeston and he was in the wardship of the abbot of Begham for six years after.

Hugh le Carpentyr, 40, agrees, and knows it because at that time he made a Brome father of the said John, and Richard his own son was born in the same year.

Maurice de Hothlegh, 40, agrees, and knows it because at that time he received the tonsure (coronatus fuit corona benedicta) from Gilbert sometime bishop of Cicestre.

Simon Garland, 50, agrees, and knows it because at that time he first came into the parish of Hertefeld and served Master Henry Garland in his manor, and he knows of the age of the said John by the date of his rolls of account.

Walter le Thoth, 60, agrees, and knows it because at that time he married the daughter of Richard de Isefelde.

606. RICHARD DE SANCTA MARGARETA.

Writ, 12 November, 18 Edward II.

CORNWALL. Inq. taken at Launtyan, 26 February, 18 Edward II.

Launtian, Treglast, Rosewyk. The manors and a moiety of the manor of Trueru, were held of the king in chief by John de Ripariis, as a moiety of the inheritance sometime of Roger de Lucy by service of $\frac{1}{2}$ knight's fee, the other moiety whereof the heirs or assigns of Robert son of Walter hold by similar service. And the said John when scutage was granted to him by the king, levied the same at Treglast as in the other lands aforesaid, viz.—as for a knight's fee.

CORNWALL. Inq. taken at St. David, 19 May, 18 Edward II.

Treglast. The hamlet (extent given), held of the king in chief as of the crown by the feoffment of John de Ripariis who held it of the king in free socage.

A certain land called Kellignon (extent given), held of Joan late the wife of John le Seneschal, as of the manor of Hellond in socage and by service of rendering 2s. yearly and doing two suits at the court of the manor yearly.

A burgage in the borough held of the prior of Bodmin by service of 22*d.* yearly, and doing two suits at his court yearly; $\frac{1}{4}$ a. land held of the said prior by service of 6*d.* yearly; 7*a.* land without the borough, held of the said prior by service of 23*d.* yearly, and doing suit at his court every three weeks; and a grange containing $\frac{1}{4}$ a. land without the borough, held of Henry Tirel by service of 11*d.* yearly.

Walter his son, aged 19 at the feast of the Purification last, is his next heir.

Memorandum (from the escheator?) No other inquisition as to the services of the hamlet of Treglast can be had in those parts but that it is held in socage, because John de Ripariis when lord there allotted it to his tenants by such service, and levied no scutage as they say; but as by another inquisition taken elsewhere, which he sends, it is found that the said John held the manors of Launtian, Treglast &c., of the king &c., by service of $\frac{1}{2}$ knight's fee, order should be taken by the king's council lest wardship and marriage be delivered out of the king's hands to his disinherittance.

Writ to the escheator to send in the inquisitions without delay, 20 June, 18 Edward II. Endorsed with return that he has sent them in and now sends a transcript.

Transcript of the above inquisitions.

[ESSEX.] Inq. Friday after St. John ante Portam Latinam, 19 Edward II.

716. JOHN DE TANY.

Petition to the king and council from Joan, late the wife of the said John for her dower of lands in Wenynghton, Alvethale, Reynham, Stifford, and Little Thurrok, co. Essex, which the said John gave to Henry Garnet, and are now in the king's hand. (French undated.)

Writ of ulterius certiorari to Richard de Goshalm and others, to enquire whether the said John could dower the said Joan of the above, and when he died &c., 17 July, 19 Edward II.

ESSEX. Inq. Monday after the octave of St. Martin, 19 Edward II.

The said John after he married the said Joan was seised of the manor of Wenynghton, with the lands pertaining thereto, viz.—A messuage, 106*a.* arable, and 8*a.* pasture in Wenynghton, 18*a.* arable in Reynham, and 4*a.* arable and 4½*a.* meadow in Alvithale, and 4*l.* 10*s.* rent of assize in the said towns, and also 57*a.* arable, 3*a.* pasture, and 60*s.* rent in Stifford, and he could dower her thereof, but he had no lands in Little Thurrok from which he could dower her. By his charter of 24 June, 6 Edward II., he enfeoffed Henry Gernet and Margery his wife and the heirs of the said Henry of all the aforesaid lands, but there is no cause why the said Joan ought not to be dowered of them, and she has never remitted her right. The said John died a natural death in the hospital of St. Mary without Bisshoppesgate, London, on 15 December, 9 Edward II., and all the above lands were taken into the king's hand, with others of the said Henry, on the feast of St. Edmund the king, 15 Edward II. The lands &c., in Wenyngton are held of the abbot of Westminster by service of 100s. yearly, those in Alvithele and Reynham are held of Robert Lenveise by service of 21s. yearly, and those in Stifford are held of the archbishop of Canterbury by service of 12*d.* yearly.

Writ of ulterius certiorari to the constable of the castle of Berkhamptede to examine Henry Garnet who is in prison there, whether he has anything to say, why the said Joan ought not to have her dower of the above lands, 28 July, 19 Edward II. Endorsed with return that he answers that he has enough (to allege) for himself why she ought not to have her dower there.

Petition to the king and council from the said Henry that the said Joan may be put to take her action at the common law, for he will say enough for the king and himself in bar of the action. Endorsed. Because the petitioner intends to exclude the said Joan from her petition of dower, the whole process must come before the great council.

Petition to the king and council from the said Joan reciting the above inquest &c. and praying remedy, as the chancellor will not render to her her dower for which she has so long sued. Endorsed as above that the whole process (must go) before the great council.

[IMPERIAL 8vo., cloth. Price 15s. each Volume or Part, except where otherwise stated.]

Subsequent to recommendations of Committees of the House of Commons in 1800 and 1836, the Master of the Rolls, in 1865, stated to the Lords of the Treasury that although "the Records, State Papers, "and Documents in his charge constitute the most complete and "perfect series of their kind in the civilized world, and although "they are of the greatest value in a historical and constitutional point "of view, yet they are comparatively useless to the public from the "want of proper Calendars and Indexes." Whereupon their Lordships assented to the necessity of having Calendars prepared, and empowered the Master of the Rolls to take such steps as might be necessary for this purpose.

WORKS PUBLISHED IN PHOTOZINCOGRAPHY.

DOMESDAY BOOK, or the GREAT SURVEY OF ENGLAND OF WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, 1086; fac-simile of the Part relating to each county, separately (with a few exceptions of double counties). Photozincographed at the Ordnance Survey Office, Southampton.

Domesday Book was printed verbatim et literatim during the 18th century, in consequence of an address of the House of Lords to King George III. in 1767. It was not, however, commenced until 1773, and was completed early in 1783. In 1860, Her Majesty's Government, with the concurrence of the Master of the Rolls, determined to apply the art of photozincography in the production of a fac-simile of Domesday Book.

FAC-SIMILES OF NATIONAL MANUSCRIPTS OF IRELAND, FROM THE EARLIEST EXTANT SPECIMENS TO 1719. Edited by J. T. GILBERT. Part I. is out of print; Parts II. and III. 2l. 2s. each; Part IV.—1. 5l. 5s.; Part IV.—2. 4l. 10s.

This work forms a comprehensive Palæographic Series for Ireland. It furnishes characteristic specimens of the documents which have come down from each of the classes which, in past ages, formed principal elements in the population of Ireland, or exercised an influence in her affairs. With these reproductions are combined fac-similes of writings connected with eminent personages or transactions of importance in the annals of the country to the early part of the eighteenth century.

The specimens have been reproduced as nearly as possible in accordance with the originals, in dimensions, colouring, and general appearance. Characteristic examples of styles of writing and caligraphic ornamentation are, as far as practicable, associated with subjects of historic and linguistic interest. Descriptions of the various manuscripts are given by the Editor in the Introduction. The contents of the specimens are fully elucidated and printed in the original languages, opposite to the Fac-similes—line for line—without contractions—thus facilitating reference and aiding effectively those interested in palæographic studies.

In the work are also printed in full, for the first time, many original and important historical documents.

Part I. commences with the earliest Irish MSS. extant.

Part II. From the Twelfth Century to 1299.

Part III. From 1300 to end of reign of Henry VIII.

Part IV.—1. From reign of Edward VI. to that of James I.

In part IV.—2 the work is carried down to the early part of the eighteenth century, with Index to the entire publication.

ACCOUNT OF FAC-SIMILES OF NATIONAL MANUSCRIPTS OF IRELAND. In one Vol., with Index. 10s. Or separately: Parts I. and II. together, 2s. 6d.; Part II. 1s. 6d.; Part III. 1s.; Part IV.—1. 2s.; Part IV.—2. 2s. 6d.
